"Essex County has a thriving arts community and our Senior Art Show enables our older residents, both professionals and non-professionals, to display their original creations where everyone can see them," DiVincenzo said. "This is an excellent means for us to promote the arts and inspire our residents to use their talents. I encourage our seniors to submit their work and invite our residents to visit the Art Show," he added.

Senior citizens must be at least 60 years old and a resident of Essex County to participate. Senior citizens will be considered as professional artists if they meet at least two of the following conditions: have sold their art through commercial channels including craft fairs; have shown their artwork in exhibits, galleries, museums, craft shows for two or more years; have had their work selected in two or more juried art or craft shows; have received two or more awards for their work; or have a professional membership in an artist's or craft person's guild or association. Seniors with non-professional status do not meet at least two of the above criteria.

Awards will be presented in the following categories, without exceptions: acrylic, craft, digital, drawing, mixed media and collage, oil, pastel, photography, print, sculpture and watercolor. First place winners will be eligible to participate in the New Jersey Senior Art Contest.

Seniors can submit two entries of original artwork that were completed within the last three years. Artwork must be matted, mounted or framed, with screw eyes and wire attached. Art cannot be larger than 30 inches and no smaller than 10 inches in any dimension, including matting and outer edge frame dimension. Sculptures or 3-D crafts cannot exceed 20 inches in any dimension, including the base. Work should not exceed 40 pounds in weight. Any entry with a value exceeding $400 must have private insurance.

All artwork must be clearly labeled with the following information: the artist's name, address, title of work, medium, date created, size, professional or non-professional status, and approximate value of the painting, with the name of the insurance company if it is privately insured. Labels will be provided to artists during drop-off at the Essex County Hospital Center. All entries must be delivered to the Essex County Hospital Center, 204 Grove Avenue, Cedar Grove, NJ on Wednesday, August 8th between 10 a.m. and 12 Noon.
